

SNACK TIME: DRINKS

Instructions: Start speaking in Spanish when helping your child/children with drinks. If you know the phrase in Spanish, say it! If you say it English first, and then remember you know it in Spanish, say it in Spanish right after! Avoid correcting or pushing your children into speaking. Make it fun, and they will want to join in and have you help them with the phrases. **Of course, do not use any phrases that would hurt your child, like anything relating to food allergies.

Section 1

Are you thirsty?
Yes.
No.

¿Tienes sed?
Sí.
No.

Section 2

What would you like to drink?
Do you want...?
Do you want some water?
Do you want some juice?
Do you want some milk?

¿Qué quieres tomar?
¿Quieres...?
¿Quieres agua?
¿Quieres jugo?
¿Quieres leche?

Section 3

I want...
I want some water, please.
I want some juice, please.
I want some milk, please.

Quiero...
Quiero agua, por favor.
Quiero jugo, por favor.
Quiero leche, por favor.

Section 4

Here you go.
Drink...
Drink your water.
Drink your juice.
Drink your milk.
Careful!
Good job.

Aquí tienes.
Tómate...
Tómate el agua.
Tómate el jugo.
Tómate la leche.
¡Cuidado!
Bien hecho.

Section 5

You drank it all.
Do you want more?
Do you want more water?
Do you want more juice?
Do you want more milk?

Te lo/la tomaste todo.*
¿Quieres más?
¿Quieres más agua?
¿Quieres más jugo?
¿Quieres más leche?

Section 6

I don't have any...
I don't have any water.
I don't have any juice.
I don't have any milk.

No tengo...
No tengo agua.
No tengo jugo.
No tengo leche.

*In section 5, use lo if the word is in blue in Section 4. Use la if the word is pink in section 4.

Note: If you're loving this, think of where you could be in JUST FIVE MONTHS. This is a lil' taste of our full class, which includes way more than language guides. You get illustrated wall charts (like of tons of different foods and drinks), label cards for your home with most used phrases (like "Turn the lights on/off"), as well as fun activities. You'll be speaking more and more Spanish throughout your entire day while dressing your child, washing hands, going on walks, and lots more!